

A Series for ECU Researchers

Downtown Dialogues on the Humanities

Tuesday, December 7
@ The Greenville Museum of Art
5:00-8:00 pm

The Real and Imagined Lives of Southern Women: From the Fictitious Anti-Heroine to the Mayor's Office

Speakers

☞ *Dr. Margaret Bauer,
Department of English,*

*“Kat Meads’s Kitty Duncan: A 1960s Scarlett O’Hara
“disregard[s] the female imperative” in Eastern North Carolina”*

Opening Remarks and Moderator

*Professor Alex Albright,
Department of English*

☞ *Dr. Erick Green,
School of Art,*

“Documentary Films: Eastern NC Female Voices of Power”

Raise a glass!
Join the discussion!

Complimentary refreshments and hors d’oeuvres

For more information contact: Dr. Purificación Martínez (martinezp@ecu.edu)

Sponsored by

ECU Division of Research and Graduate Studies

ECU Division of Academic Affairs

The Greenville Museum of Art